Article 53 The duration of Canadian patents and the rights conferred by them:

(I) The Agreement on Trade-related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights;

(II) The protection of undisclosed information and data exclusivity granted to pharmaceutical products;

(III) Sanctions, damages and costs awarded in relation to the enforcement of intellectual property rights;

(IV) Subject to subparagraph (V), the limitations on the exclusive rights granted to patentees of Canadian patents, including limitations relating to the exclusive rights granted to patentees of pharmaceutical products;

Any amendments to the provisions of the Patent Act of Canada and the regulations made thereunder that are consistent with changes to the international standards set out in subparagraph (IV).

Subject to subparagraph (V), the limitations on the exclusive rights granted to patentees of pharmaceutical products, including the grounds for revocation of patents, and the rights of persons importing pharmaceutical products that are produced under the exclusive rights granted to patentees of Canadian patents.

(V) The flexibilities in the Agreement on Trade-related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights and the Doha Declaration on the Agreement on Trade-related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights.

Any dispute between a Party and an investor of another Party that arises under this Chapter may be submitted to arbitration in accordance with this Section.

Article 54 If a Party adopts or maintains a measure inconsistent with its obligations under Article 14.9 (Senior Management and Boards of Directors), an investor of another Party may submit a claim to arbitration under this Section.

Article 55 The provisions of Article 14.9 (Senior Management and Boards of Directors) of Canada are non-conforming provisions to the extent that they apply to measures adopted or maintained by Canada. If Canada amends any of the provisions of Article 14.9 (Senior Management and Boards of Directors) of Canada, that amendment shall not be subject to the dispute settlement provisions of this Agreement.

The provisions of Article 14.9 (Senior Management and Boards of Directors) of Canada do not apply to measures adopted or maintained by Canada with respect to sectors, subsectors or activities set out in its Schedule to Annex I. The provisions of Article 14.9 (Senior Management and Boards of Directors) of Canada do not apply to measures adopted or maintained by Canada with respect to sectors, subsectors or activities, as described in its Schedule to Annex II, to the extent that any such measure is not inconsistent with the obligations imposed by Article 14.9 (Senior Management and Boards of Directors) of Canada. The provisions of Article 14.9 (Senior Management and Boards of Directors) of Canada do not apply to any existing measure maintained by Canada at the level of government identified in its Schedule to Annex II, to the extent that any such measure is not inconsistent with the obligations imposed by Article 14.9 (Senior Management and Boards of Directors) of Canada.

Article 56 Save as otherwise provided in this Act, and subject to the Listing Rules of the Securities Exchange, the Company may, by ordinary resolution, reduce its share capital and any capital redemption reserve fund or any share premium account in any way:

(I) Extinguishing or reducing the liability on any shares in respect of share capital not paid up;

(II) Authorizing the Company to purchase its own shares (including any redeemable shares) and making a payment in connection with the purchase or agreement to purchase shares of the Company;

(III) Authorizing the Company to transfer shares (including any redeemable shares) to the holders of another class of shares, or to a clearing house recognized by the laws of the place where the Company's shares are listed or to a nominee of such clearing house, in proportion to their holdings of shares of that class or in any other manner as may be authorized by the Articles of Association of the Company.

Article 57 Any reduction of capital, redemption or purchase made pursuant to the preceding Article shall not be deemed to give rise to the variation of rights of any class of shares:

(I) Where any reduction of capital, redemption or purchase made by the Company, each shareholder's proportion of shareholding in the Company remains unchanged;

(II) Where any reduction of capital, redemption or purchase made by the Company, each shareholder's proportion of shareholding in the Company remains unchanged after the passing of a 30% (or more) special resolution of the shareholders of the Company;

(III) Where any reduction of capital, redemption or purchase made by the Company, and after the passing of a 30% (or more) special resolution of the holders of the shares of the Company;

(IV) Where any reduction of capital, redemption or purchase made by the Company, and any adjustment made in accordance with the Articles of Association of the Company.

The reduction of capital, redemption or purchase of shares made by the Company in accordance with the provisions of the preceding Articles, the Company and its shareholders who participate in the repurchase proposal (or the shareholders of the shares to be purchased) shall be deemed to have agreed to the Company's handling of the repurchase in accordance with the procedures and conditions specified in the Articles of Association of the Company.

If a bad faith claim is made against a Participant, the Participant has 10 days from receipt of the bad faith claim to submit a response to the Claims Administrator, and the Participant's response must include all documentation and information that the Participant wishes to submit in support of its response. For purposes of calculating the 10 day period, the Participant is deemed to have received the bad faith claim 5 days after the date it was sent to the Participant.

Article 74 Subject to the following conditions, the Participant's claim will be accepted:

(I) The Participant's response is submitted within 10 days from the date of receipt of the Claims Administrator's notification ( ) and the Participant has provided sufficient documentation and information to support its response, and the Claims Administrator has not received any bad faith claim against the Participant's response within 5 days from the date of receipt of the bad faith claim. The bad faith claim must be submitted in accordance with the following provisions. The Participant is deemed to have received the bad faith claim 5 days after the date it was sent to the Participant.

(II) If a bad faith claim against a Participant's response is submitted, the Participant has 5 days from receipt of the bad faith claim to submit a response to the Claims Administrator. If a claim is made against a Participant, the Participant must submit sufficient documentation and information to support its response.

(III) If a bad faith claim against a Participant's response is submitted, the Participant has 10 days from receipt of the bad faith claim to submit a response to the Claims Administrator, and the Participant must submit sufficient documentation and information to support its response. The Participant is deemed to have received the bad faith claim 5 days after the date it was sent to the Participant.

(IV) If a bad faith claim against a Participant's response is submitted, the Participant has 5 days from receipt of the bad faith claim to submit a response to the Claims Administrator. If a claim is made against a Participant, the Participant must submit sufficient documentation and information to support its response. If a bad faith claim against a Participant's response is submitted, the Participant has 10 days from receipt of the bad faith claim to submit a response to the Claims Administrator, and the Participant must submit sufficient documentation and information to support its response. The Participant is deemed to have received the bad faith claim 5 days after the date it was sent to the Participant. Article 107 Decisions about the appointment, promotion, transfer, demotion, discipline, dismissal and retirement of staff members must be taken by the Chief Executive Officer or by a staff member to whom the Chief Executive Officer has delegated authority to do so.

The Chief Executive Officer may delegate authority to any staff member to take decisions on behalf of the Chief Executive Officer. If the Chief Executive Officer delegates authority, the Chief Executive Officer may impose conditions on the delegation, and may withdraw the delegation or amend it at any time. Article 4 of Annex A applies to the delegation of authority by the Chief Executive Officer.

Persons to whom authority is delegated must exercise that authority in accordance with the instructions of the Chief Executive Officer. Subject to Article 4 of Annex A, a person to whom authority is delegated may not sub-delegate that authority unless the Chief Executive Officer has given written permission to do so.

If a decision is taken by a person to whom authority has been delegated and the Chief Executive Officer considers that the decision was not taken in accordance with the instructions of the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Executive Officer may require that the decision be reviewed by the person who took the decision or by another person.

Article 4 of Annex A applies to the withdrawal of delegated authority. When delegated authority is withdrawn, the person who exercised that authority may request that the decision be reviewed by the Chief Executive Officer or by another person to whom authority has been delegated.

Each decision to appoint, promote, transfer, demote, discipline, dismiss or retire a staff member must be taken by the Chief Executive Officer or by a person to whom authority has been delegated.

The Chief Executive Officer may establish a panel to advise on any matter relating to the appointment, promotion, transfer, demotion, discipline, dismissal or retirement of staff members.

Article 108 The Chief Executive Officer may establish a Staff Council.

Article 112 The duly elected Chairman of the Board of Directors; and the Chief Executive Officer; acting in accordance with the Articles of Association; shall be authorized to represent the Company in all matters; and to sign all documents on behalf of the Company.

Article 113 The Chairman shall preside over all meetings of the Board of Directors. The Chief Executive Officer shall be responsible for the day-to-day management of the Company; and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors. The Chairman and the Chief Executive Officer may be the same person.

Article 114 The Board of Directors may appoint such officers of the Company as it deems necessary; including a Secretary, one or more Assistant Secretaries, and such other officers as may be provided for in the Articles of Association.

(I) Any such officer shall (unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Association) be appointed by the Board of Directors and may be removed by the Board of Directors with or without cause. The Chief Executive Officer may appoint officers below the level of Vice President and may delegate to such officers the power to appoint officers below the level of Vice President;

(II) The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and shall record all votes and minutes of all proceedings in a book to be kept for that purpose;

(III) The Assistant Secretaries shall assist the Secretary in the performance of his duties;

(IV) The officers of the Company shall perform such duties as are customarily associated with their respective offices;

(V) The duties and powers of officers may be further defined by resolution of the Board of Directors;

(VI) The officers of the Company shall hold office until their successors are duly appointed or their earlier resignation or removal.

Without prejudice to the rights of any party under any contract, the appointment of any officer may be terminated at any time by the Board of Directors. Subject to paragraphs (I) and (II) above, the Chief Executive Officer may terminate the appointment of any officer appointed by the Chief Executive Officer. Subject to paragraphs (III), (IV) and (VI), any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Company. Subject to paragraph (V), any vacancy among the officers may be filled by the Board of Directors. Any officer appointed by the Chief Executive Officer may be removed by the Chief Executive Officer. If any dispute arises between the Company and any officer appointed by the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Executive Officer shall act on behalf of the Company in all matters relating to such dispute.

Article 163 The financial year of the Company shall be in accordance with the PRC accounting standards and regulations. If the Company has foreign investments, its financial statements shall be prepared in accordance with the PRC accounting standards and regulations. The Company's financial statements shall be audited by an accounting firm as required by law.

Article 164 The Company shall publish its financial statements in accordance with the PRC accounting standards and regulations.

Article 165 The Company shall not establish any accounting book outside of the place where its assets are located. The Company shall not keep any accounting book in any personal name or in the name of any entity other than the Company.

Article 166 The Company shall not keep any secret account.

Article 167 When the Company distributes its after-tax profits of the current year, 10% of the profits shall be allocated to the statutory reserve fund. If the cumulative statutory reserve fund of the Company exceeds 50% of the registered capital of the Company.

If the Company's statutory reserve fund is insufficient to cover the losses of the Company in previous years, the current year's profits shall be used to cover the losses before any allocation is made to the statutory reserve fund.

After the Company's statutory reserve fund has been converted into capital, the balance of the statutory reserve fund after such conversion shall not be less than 25% of the registered capital before the conversion.

After the Company has allocated to the statutory reserve fund, it may allocate to the discretionary reserve fund as resolved by the shareholders' meeting.

If the Company's shareholders' meeting has violated the provisions of the Company Law in relation to the allocation of profits before the Company has distributed profits to its shareholders, the Company must return the profits allocated in violation of the provisions to the Company.

The shares held by the Company do not participate in the distribution of profits.
